I'll begin the interviews today – have all of the plaintiffs whose contact info we were provided been notified to expect to hear from us?

Also, if you have copies of their depositions or any further info related to their actual credit scores, it would be helpful – else I'll just try to get all the info we need over the phone from them.

Thanks,

Brian

Yes, ALL the plaintiffs have been informed that you will be calling. We have not yet received copies of their deposition transcripts. Brian, see if you can get Russ done immediately - in case the judge refuses the extension, at least we have the most important one in. I'll keep you posted on that one.

Krishnan,

I'll e-mail you Jedson Russ' report likely tonight after business hours. It'll definitely be in your inbox by first thing tomorrow morning.

Obviously it won't be in time for our report, but can you request from Mr. Judson his tax returns going back to about 2000? It'll help for completeness of our file, especially if we need to refine calculations to be more exact down the line. Actually it would help to have tax returns for all of the clients over the relevant time periods. And, of, course their depositions when you get them and any information on their actual pre- and post-injury credit scores. We'll make do with what we've got in the mean time, but these are things we ought to have.

Thanks,

Brian
